Dear Mrs Senior

Please find enclosed my application to have the Grange Drive/Meadow Way alleyway and the route depicted on the enclosed map which leads from the top of this alleyway to Burton Road dedicated as a Public Right Of Way and therefore added to the Definitive Map of Public Rights of Way.

I have enclosed over 100 Modification Evidence Forms to support my application, along with various supportive emails, newspaper cuttings, the Preferred Masterplan (Option 3) proposed by LCC on which the footpath in question is clearly marked (showing its intention to retain and maintain) and a petition. I have kept a complete set of copies of all documentation submitted in the event that you may need them.

At this juncture I would like to point out that a number of Users have made their own comments as to how they feel about the closure of the access route/footpath on their User evidence Forms. I do hope these will be taken into consideration.

In support of my own User Evidence Form - and this application - I feel compelled to note that according to the Highways Act 1980, Section 26:

'An Authority must have regards to the extent to which the way would add to the convenience and enjoyment of a substantial section of the public – or to the convenience of persons resident in the area.'

I have detailed below a number of significant advocates of this Application who would be willing to speak to any official presiding over this cause:

NAME	ADDRESS	TEL NUMBER	NO OF YEARS USAGE	DETAIL
Owen Homewood	24 Meadow Way		36
Cheryl Dul	17 Meadow Way	01664 857768	32	Education Officer
Marcia Phillips	6 Lowesby Close	01664 851988	30
Rachel Urquhart	13 Sussex Avenue	01664 564523	27
Neal Collington	63 Grange Drive	01664 854583	12	KEVII Site Officer
Anne Duckworth	20 Meadow Way	01664 859454	48	Ex Justice of Peace
John Duckworth	20 Meadow Way	01664 859454	48	Retired teacher

I also have support from Leigh Higgins who lived on Meadow Way 1984-1994 and who is active in local politics.

Should there be anything additional that would further our application but which I have omitted, please don't hesitate to contact me.

I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Yours sincerely

Cheryl Dul
